3 STEPS TO SETTING ^ GOALS IN YOUR CREATIVE BUSINESS
Part 3

What are some ways that will help you successfully work your plan? Reminders in your calendar? A hard copy spiral notebook? A whiteboard in your office? A spreadsheet? Joining a business networking group?

How often will you re-evaluate your plan and make sure that it is still working for you and what are some of the aspects that will determine if an area is working or needs to be changed?

Who are some of the people in your circle that could be great accountability partners in business?
Who are some people that you feel that you could encourage?

Final thoughts: What is your 'why'?

Why are you in business? Is it about financial freedom? Is it about the change that you can bring to your sphere of influence?

Is it about being your own boss? Is it about doing what you feel you were made to do? Let your 'why' be an invitation to dream big and go attain it!
